

14 October 2011

COMPANY UPDATE

The Board of Jupiter Energy Limited (the Company) is pleased to advise that the various documents required to be submitted in order to provide notice of admission to trading on the AIM market have now been published.

Copies of these documents can be found on our website under Investor Centre/
Recent Disclosure Documents

The expected date of admission of the Company to trading on AIM is 9 November 2011 and the Company will confirm when the admission process has been completed. The expected AIM ticker is "JPRL".

The Company is also pleased to advise that leading Kazakh bank and finance institution Halyk Finance has initiated research coverage on Jupiter Energy Limited.

A link to their research report can be found on our website under Investor Centre/
Broker Information/Broker Reports

ENDS